October 28, 2009 Treasurer's Report

Approved

Approximately $15,485 in checking account. More bills are trickling in. Net for the year $1655. We raised more than we spent. Equipment: budget $760, spent $480. Saved about $1500 on uniforms. Close to budget on events. Revenue: made $3600 on sponsorship, still collecting dollars. Wreath sales – we made $6433. Varsity team had the lowest participation in the wreath fundraiser. Booster club may consider a player fee for families who choose not to participate in fundraising. Keith Mason provided an update of the current budget.

No captains attended the meeting.

Coaches' Comments

Coach Adams reported on preliminary numbers out of the middle school three 8th grade teams out of the middle schools, so it looks like we'll have 2 9th grade teams next year. Coach will go to RMS and SHMS to meet with prospective players to talk about RHS soccer. Schedule is set for next year.

Old Business

- Wreath Sales/Pickup – All wreaths were picked up.
- Varsity Team Posters – Kevin Newman will check to see how many posters are left. Booster club will discuss, at a future meeting, what to do with the remaining posters.

Miscellaneous Business

- Financial support for Irish stadium – Mike Manning requested support from booster clubs to supplement donations for improvements for the Irish Stadium. Booster club approved $2500 to be paid in full at this time.
- Comprehensive Financial Report 2009 – See treasurer's report
- Recruiting new booster club members – New members are needed for volunteer opportunities for next year's program.
